Gospel Reflection

– In the Easter Gospel, Jesus did not stop with telling those few believers that he was still alive. Rather, he told them to go out and tell the others what they had seen and heard. Tell the others that they too will meet the risen Christ, that he has gone on to find them as well. Long before we come together again to celebrate another Easter, each one of us will have met any number of people who are hungry for that truth – any number of people who are waiting to be called out of their fears, out of their desperation, out of their sense of hopelessness. By going out and sharing with others the love, compassion, and forgiveness of Jesus, we can bring the hope of the risen Lord to those who are so in need of a little of God’s love in their lives. May you have a Blessed and Happy Easter.
